

BEING A GOOD NEIGHBOR!

Did you know City Code requires short-term rental occupants as well as short-term rental owners and operators to comply with Ordinance 2025-322 and City Code?

Short-term rental owners, operators and occupants operating in the City of Houston are required to comply with all conditions, regulations, requirements, and rules including, but not limited to:

Chapter 10, Buildings and Neighborhood Protection

- Building standards and cleanup after demo or removal of structures
- Fire hazards, neighborhood nuisances, rat control, junk vehicle abatement (removing or disposing of)

Chapter 30, Noise and Sound Level

- Noisy animals, birds and vehicles
- Amplified sounds from vehicles and equipment, permissible maximum sound levels and permit requirements

Chapter 39, Solid Waste and Litter Control

- Disposal of garbage, junk, solid waste, trash, and tree and yard waste, storing, transporting and disposal of tires
- Placement and storage of all trash neatly in designated trash containers, follow the trash collection schedule

Construction Code and Fire Code

Minimum individual stay

- Short-term rental for a period of less than one day or night is prohibited

Advertising and promoting a special event

- Such as a wedding, reception, reunion, bachelor or bachelorette party, concert or any similar event is prohibited

All listings or advertising of the STR property

- are required to include the City's Certificate of Registration number and maximum occupancy limits.

For more information about City of Houston Code of Ordinances, please click here.

REPORT a short-term rental concern or complaint anytime, call 713-636-5365 or click here