PROVISIONS FOR REVOCATION OF EXEMPTION

Any of the following shall constitute grounds for revocation of the exemption:

- a. The site has deteriorated, been destroyed or demolished, or any City taxes relative to the historical site become delinquent.
- b. The site has been the subject of a Certificate of Appropriateness issued under Sec. 33-247 or Sec. 33-250 which are an approval to demolish or a ninety-day waiver certificate which indicates the site no longer qualifies as historic.
- c. Sufficient restoration work on the designated historic site has not been completed to satisfy either subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection (c) of Ordinance 2001-212 within five years of the passage of the applicant's historic site tax exemption ordinance.

Revocation of an exemption will subject the property to recapture of additional back taxes for a period of up to five years.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Section 11.43 of the State Tax Code requires the property owner to file an application for a historic site exemption with the Harris County Appraisal District annually. Failure to file before May 1st of each year will result in denial of the exemption for that year.
