DURATION OF RESTRICTIONS:

All of the restrictions and covenants herein set forth shall continue for a period of ten (10) years from the date of this instrument, and shall automatically be extended thereafter for successive periods of ten (10) years; provided however, that the then owners of the legal title to the Lots shown by the records of Harris County, Texas, may modify or amend the Restrictions. The Restrictions can be terminated by the then owners of the legal title to the Lots shown by the records of Harris County, Texas.

RIGHT TO ENFORCE:

The restrictions herein set forth shall be binding upon all current owners in the Subdivisions and all subsequent owners in the Subdivision each of whom shall be obligated and bound to observe such restrictions, covenants, and conditions provided, however, that no such person or corporation shall be liable except in respect to breaches committed during its, his, or their ownership of said property. The violation of any such restrictions, covenants, or condition shall not operate to invalidate any mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien acquired and held in good faith against said property, or any part thereof, but such liens may be enforced as against any and all property covered thereby, subject nevertheless, to the restrictions, covenants, and conditions as herein mentioned.

The Association shall have the right to enforce observance and performance of such restrictions, covenants and conditions, and in order to prevent a breach or to enforce the observance or performance of same, shall have the right in addition to all legal remedies, to an injunction either prohibitive or mandatory. The owner of any Lot or Lots affected shall have the right to either to prevent a breach of any restrictions, covenants or conditions, or to enforce the performance of same.

UNOFFICIAL COPY

A failure to observe, perform or comply with any restrictions herein set out shall not abrogate the same or render it or any other restriction inoperative and no such non-observance, non-performance, or non-compliance, however long continued, or however general or prevalent the same may be, shall constitute a defense in any suit or proceeding brought to enforce the compliance with and/or observance and performance of any of said restrictions, conditions, and provisions. Invalidation of any one of these covenants by judgment or court order shall in no wise affect any of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

GRANDFATHERING/NON-CONFORMITY

Any Lot, structure or use of a Lot in violation of the Restrictions as of the Effective Date of the Restrictions is considered nonconforming. Nonconforming Lots, structures and uses shall not include any Lot, structure or use which violated the Current Restrictions or any applicable laws, ordinances or regulations on the Effective Date. Nonconformities are grandfathered and may continue in legal existence.

Nonconformaties may be maintained, repaired or cosmetically remodeled, but may not be structurally enhanced, expanded or reconstructed after a casualty loss where over fifty percent (50%) of the value of the nonconforming structure is destroyed. A nonconformity loses its legal status as such time the Lot, structure or use comes into compliance with the Restrictions and thereafter, the nonconformity may not resume. Any nonconformity is deemed abandoned after 90 days of continuous nonuse.

In the event of dispute regarding a nonconformity, the Board shall investigate the facts surrounding the nonconformity, receive input from Owners and render its decision, which decision shall be final.

GENERAL PROVSIONS

(a) Attorney's Fees. The Association shall recover all attorney's fees and court costs incurred in enforcing any provisions of the Restrictions.

(b) Binding Affect. The Restrictions are binding upon and are to the benefit of the Owner and their heirs, executors, representatives, successors and assigns, where permitted.

(c) Choice of Law. The Restrictions are subject to and governed by the law of the State of Texas.

(d) Construction. The Restrictions shall be liberally construed to achieve the intent of the Owners. Any rule of construction to strictly construe restrictive covenants or to construe restrictive covenants in favor of the free use of land is inapplicable.

(e) Effective Date. The Restrictions are effective upon recording in the Real Property Records.

(f) Multiple Signature Pages. The Petition to Alter Restrictions contains multiple signature pages and will be executed in multiple originals without all signatures on any one original. Separate signature pages may be attached to the copy of the Restrictions recorded in order to eliminate unnecessary costs of filing copies of the Restrictions.

(g) Non-Waiver. No waiver, express or implied, of any violation of the Restrictions shall preclude the subsequent enforcement of the Restrictions as to that or similar violations. No member of the Board has the authority to waive, modify or terminate any provision to the Restrictions.

(h) Notices. Any notice to an Owner may be provided by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to Owner at the Lot and shall be effected when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, or when hand delivered (by courier service or otherwise) to the Lot if an occupied house exists on the Lot (even if no one is home when delivery is made).

(i) Severability. The invalidity, abandonment or waiver of any one of the Restrictions shall not affect or impair any other of the Restrictions and any invalid, abandoned or waived Restriction shall be judicially reformed to be valid, enforceable and effectuate the intentions of the Owners.

(j) Texas Property Code Chapter 204. The Owners intent to comply with the provisions of Texas Property Code Chapter 204 in order to amend the Current Restrictions of the Subdivisions.

(k) Time. Time is of the essence in the compliance with obligations in the Restrictions. A deadline falling on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday recognized by the State of Texas is extended to the next following weekday which is not a holiday.

(l) Restatement. The Restrictions shall modify, add to and extend the Current Restrictions on the Subdivisions and shall restate and replace the Current restrictions.
