

CHALLENGER MEMORIAL

Title: Challenger Memorial

Artist: Unknown

Date: 1987

Medium: Bronze (plaque), Granite (surface)

Location: Tranquillity Park

A memorial to the astronauts who died in the January 28, 1986, wreck of the space shuttle Challenger has been placed in the north section of Tranquillity Park. It consists of a bronze plaque set in a rough-cut block of granite with one smooth surface. Seven stars represent the seven astronauts, and their names are inscribed on the plaque. It was dedicated in 1987.

